SPONSORSHIP BROCHURE

Network and Distributed System Security (NDSS) Symposium

The NDSS Symposium is one of the world's top four cybersecurity research conferences, convening leading experts to advance cutting-edge security solutions. For over 30 years, the Internet Society has proudly hosted the NDSS Symposium as a gathering place for the next generation of security specialists to share their research and learn from industry thought leaders. Today, it's a truly global forum—bringing together participants from more than 30 countries, with rapid growth in the Asia-Pacific region, a key hub for digital innovation.

In 2027, the Symposium moves to Seoul, Republic of Korea, presenting sponsors and partners with the opportunity to become key stakeholders in this expanding ecosystem. More than just an event, NDSS is evolving into a year-round innovation platform under the Internet Society's Safer Internet Initiative—offering sponsors and partners unique access to top talent, emerging research, and global stakeholders shaping the future of cybersecurity.

At NDSS Symposium 2026, we welcomed 674 participants from 34 countries, continuing a steady trend of growing international engagement.

Participation from the Asia-Pacific region alone has increased by more than 60% over the past three years.

2027 Location

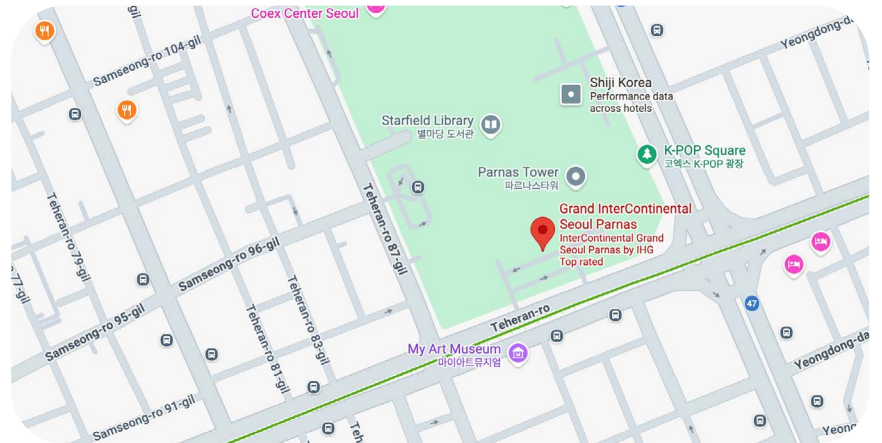

5-minute walk from Samseong Subway Station (Line 2)

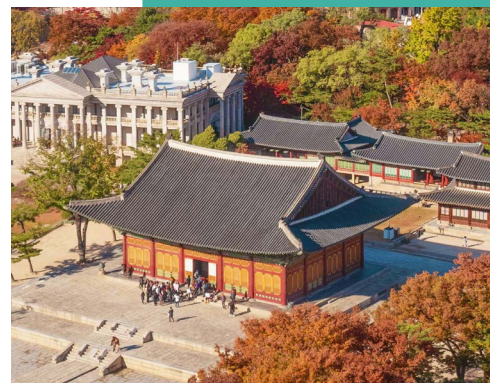

Located in the Korea World Trade Center, directly connected to the convention center

Surrounded by cafés, restaurants, and luxury retail in one of Seoul's most vibrant districts

As the host venue for NDSS Symposium 2027, the InterContinental Grand Seoul Parnas positions the event in a high-profile destination with strong appeal for international attendees. With direct access to the Korea World Trade Center and convention facilities, the venue is situated in the heart of Gangnam, Seoul's premier business and innovation district, providing an elevated backdrop for networking, visibility, and a memorable event experience.

Co-located Event Sponsorship and Tailored Packages

Every year, several related workshops and symposia take place alongside the NDSS Symposium. These co-located events take place on the Monday before and the Friday after the main Symposium, focusing on specific areas of network security research. 2027 workshops will include:

- Workshop on the Security of Space and Satellite Systems (SpaceSec).
- Workshop on Measurements, Attacks, and Defenses for the Web (MADWeb).
- Workshop on Security and Privacy in Standardized IoT (SDIoTSec).
- Tailored sponsorship packages are available to sponsor co-located events as well as the NDSS Symposium.
